

MOROCCO IRF ASSESMENT & EXPEDITION

We combine a Workshop and IRF Certification class 3 and 4 for Rafting and Trip Leader guides with the descent of Expedition of the Melloul and Ahansal rivers in the Moroccan High Atlas. There will be 4 intense days of training and unique experiences in this Amazigh or Berber valley of singular beauty, through a descent through rapids, canyons and impressive gorges. Our hosts will have prepared haima camps by the river and we can enjoy the typical foods of the region.

IMPORTANT INFO FOR LEVEL 4 CANDIDATES

The class of the river depends of an optimal level flow. In case of not having sufficient flow to accredit level 4 for guides and trip leaders in Ahansal and Melloul Rivers, the examination will be carried out from Morocco, but there would be a short extra workshop of 1 day with specific examination in Ara's river (Spain) with no extra cost for the candidates.

This program is provided for informational purposes and is subject to change. All the contents of the IRF course will be covered during this training, the instructors reserve the right to modify the program according to the climatic conditions, the variations of the river flow and the level of the apprentices.

MORE INFORMATION

- Places are limited to the order of payment of € 50 registration for the course, and if you request accommodation must make an advance of € 80 (€ 50 course + € 30 accommodation)
- Trip Leader candidates must successfully pass the guide exam with a higher grade.
- Instructor candidates must successfully pass both the guide and Trip Leader exams with a higher grade.

IMPORTANT:

The participation in the course does not guarantee the IRF award, all the evaluation items must be successfully passed.
