

IRF INSTRUCTOR WORKSHOP

What:	IRF RI 3/ RI 4 (Raft Instructor level 3/4)
When:	17.-23. April 2023
Where:	AOS Rafting, Grossreifling, Austria
Rivers:	Salza and Enns
Language:	English, German
Price:	550,00 €
Assessor:	Sebastian Larcher

This IRF workshop is the first step of becoming an IRF instructor. Students successfully completing this workshop will be Provisional Instructors.

Provisional Instructors must pass through a mentoring process under the supervision of their certifying Assessor. They need to deliver their own workshop under the supervision of an assessor to obtain full Instructor status.

Prerequisites:

- Candidates for this Award must possess a current Guide and Trip Leader award for the Level and type of Instructor Award that they wish to acquire
- Score 4 or more on guide and TL assessment skill sheet for the relevant level
- have guiding experience on a variety of different rivers in two or more countries
- be capable of fully demonstrating all physical skills required of their students
- Hold a current advanced first aid certificate or higher
-

For further information please contact me. Also check out the Guide Training and education award system: <https://www.internationalrafting.com/wp-content/uploads/2021/07/IRF-GTE-Award-System-v6.pdf>

Accommodation:

The course is held at the AOS Adventure Hostel. It is best to stay at the hostel as we will have long days. There is a guest kitchen we can use.

Contact: Sebastian Larcher sebastian.larcher@yahoo.com +43 699 1807 8806